In the Community

We are excited to be helping out with this year's Kids Compose submissions with the 5th and 6th graders at Clear Creek Elementary School! The NVO team will be helping those young melody writers fine-tune their submissions on September 23rd and 24th. We can't wait to hear what they've come up with!

2014 Fall Exhibition: Two Chances!

Our Second Annual Fall Exhibition will have two performances this year. The first will be on IU's campus at the Jacobs School of Music in Ford-Crawford Hall on November 7th at 7:00pm. The encore performance will be at the Bloomington Playwrights Project on November 14th at 7:00pm. The BPP has been a wonderful sponsor and mentor this Fall. We are so grateful for their partnership and for the opportunity to fit into to their exciting Season!

This year's Fall Exhibition will feature a sneak preview of our Spring Production to be performed on May 8th at the Buskirk-Chumley Theater in downtown Bloomington. The announcement of the selected opera for this year will be made soon! The rest of the evening will feature shorter excerpts from IU student composers who have submitted works in consideration for our 2016 Spring Production. Come out and join us to see what the newest crop of American composers has in store for us!

Admission is free and open to the public and the doors will open both evenings at 6:30. We hope to see you there!
